CAPITAL IDEAS FOR YOUR DC WEDDING

WASHINGTON, DC

DESTINATION
WEDDINGS

By Stacey Marcus

Couples looking for a destination brimming with history and diversity should consider Washington, DC. "Washington, DC is an exceptional place for an engagement trip, a destination wedding, and honeymoon. We're not only rich in spectacular event spaces: from national museums to landmark hotels, but also an exceptionally high number of bucket-list must-sees for your guests. We're a city with deep food roots and a boom in restaurants and nightlife, and it's crackling with energy. Want to party near the Hope Diamond, on a boat, on a rooftop overlooking the White House, or on a baseball diamond? We got this! For history buffs and culture vultures, DC boasts backdrops for engagement and wedding photos that say "only here, only now." This is a city where history is happening: from the presidential to the personal," Kate Gibbs, Media Relations Manager, Destination DC.
